Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good," and Doctor Pierce's medicine will exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merit. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popularity, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, nervousness, dizziness, foul breath, coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no bogus-pious humbug, therefore don't accept of a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve tonic it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "boozie," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterward in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much mistaken but never equaled.

SUICIDE OVER UNREQUITED LOVE.

Frederick W. Emerson, the wealthy Bostonian and classmate of President Roosevelt at Harvard, who shot himself in his summer home at Tupper Lake in the Adirondacks a few days ago, committed suicide because of his unrequited love for a beautiful young woman.

It is now known that Emerson during the last few years of his life had a consuming passion for an Adirondack maiden of the French-Canadian race, and that the tragedy that took place on the shores of the mountain lake was the culmination of his marriage to a Canadian physician and the realization that she was lost to him forever.

The object of Mr. Emerson's affection was a product of the north woods, untutored, uncultured, but with all the vivacity and charm of the race from which she had sprung. Emerson was thrown constantly in contact with her, and it is said, again and again endeavored to make her his wife. But a great obstacle stood in the way. He was not of her faith, and though respecting him as a friend, she could not take him as her husband. From the hour of her marriage to the physician Emerson was a changed man, and frequently stated to intimate friends that his life would be forever irrevocable to him.

ENTIRE FAMILY DROWNED.

An entire family, consisting of William Eidleman, aged 38 years; his wife Elizabeth, aged 37, and their two children, Anna, aged 17, and William, aged 7, of West Pensauken, N. J., were drowned in Pensauken creek, below Riverton, N. J., yesterday by the capsizing of a small rowboat.

The family was taking an outing party in celebration of the fact that the father had just cleared off the mortgage on a home he had purchased.

While rowing down Pensauken creek, which empties into the Delaware river, near Riverton, the little craft was caught in the swift current and carried against a snag morrowed in the stream. The boat was overturned and all the occupants thrown into the water.

Eidleman was seen swimming in the swift current with his son, but spectators did not realize that an accident had occurred until they heard Eidleman shout for help. Belated assistance could reach him the fitter and his son. The mother and daughter sank before the father and son.

Persons who saw the boat farther up the stream before it was wrecked say there were five or six persons in it.

CHARGE AGAINST A FATHER.

A dispatch from Independence, Grayson county, says Lewis Wingate, of Flat Ridge, that county, has been arrested and jailed, charged with the murder of his twelve year old son. The boy died under suspicious circumstances, as much so that the authorities were notified.

The body was taken up and an autopsy was held. They found, it is stated, that the child had been horribly beaten and that every one of his teeth had been pulled out with a pair of pliers. Besides, there was nothing in the child's stomach except a little water, so it seemed to the doctors that the child had not only been beaten, but starved. The evidence against the father was sufficient to warrant his arrest and incarceration in jail.

THIEVES LOOKED IN A CAR.

Recent robberies on the New York Central Railroad aggregating in the neighborhood of $100,000 are expected to be cleared, in part, at least, through the arrest of Donato Daddono and Frank B. Benedetto. After breaking the seal these men forced their way into a freight car at Chatham, N. Y. They were trapped in the car and carried to New York. Conductor Richardson saw the men force their way into the car, which contained many thousand dollars worth of silk. When they were inside the conductor slipped up and closed and locked the door. With the prisoners safe the train proceeded to New York. Arriving at the yards in that city 15 hours later the car was opened and two exhausted prisoners were taken out.

Will Not Oppose Wedding.

Vienna, May 31.—The family of Princess Amelia Louise, of Fürstburg, has just announced that it will no longer oppose the wedding of the princess and Gustav Korzan, an employee of an automobile firm, with whom she eloped. The conclusion does not mean that the royal family is reconciled to the marriage for a man against the return of the couple to Vienna will probably be issued. As the princess carried away with her men of the value of $200,000 the family realized that it had small chance of preventing the marriage.
